TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 1, 1868.

SENATE.

George C. Gorham, defeated last year for Governor of California, was elected Secretary without a ballot, with only one dissenting voice, Mr. McCreery.

Mr. BUCKALEW announced the death of ex-President Buchanan.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

A bill was passed ceding to Ohio the unsurveyed and unsold lands in the Virginia military reservation, reserving the right of settlers to the extent of one hundred and sixty acres.

BILLS PASSED.

To give effect to land grants made to Nevada.

The Senate bill to amend the act for the relief of inhabitants of cities and towns on the public lands.

ARKANSAS BILL.

The Senate amendments to the Arkansas bill were non-concurred in, and on motion of Mr. STEVENS, Pa., a Committee of Conference was asked.

THE TAX BILL.

The House went into Committee on the tax bill.

Mr. MILLER spoke briefly in its support.

Messrs. MAYNARD and ALLISON followed on the same side, the latter, however, favoring a reduction of the tax on distilled spirits to 75 or 60 cents. As to tobacco the Committee on Ways and Means would not insist on the increase proposed, but would allow the present rate to remain. He referred to the agreement made by that Committee not to report a tariff bill, remarking there was no occasion for a general revision of the tariff, as the manufacturing interests of the country were at present in a prosperous condition. The yield of coal this year is larger than ever before, and the manufacture of pig iron was never more prosperous. In fact none of the great manufacturing interests would suffer by a failure to modify the tariff.

Mr. MYERS asked whether the Committee of Ways and Means intended to insist on ten dollars on cigars?

Mr. ALLISON replied the Committee proposed to leave the tax as now at five dollars.

The general debate closed at three o'clock and the Committee proceeded to consider the bill in detail.

Mr. BLAIN, of Maine, moved to strike out the first section, which constitutes the Internal Revenue Department, and spoke in favor of his proposition.

Mr. LOGAN opposed the amendments and replied to Mr. Blain.

Mr. JUDD moved to amend the section by providing that the Commissioner shall be subject to removal or suspension only with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Mr. WOOD opposed the amendment, as also did Mr. SCHENCK.

Mr. BECK opposed the first section, arguing that under the Constitution Congress had no right to create a department, and declare who should fill it.

Mr. MAYNARD, replying, cited the case of the Department of Agriculture as in point.

Mr. NICHOLSON stated in that case the appointment was made after the passage of the act. The President nominated the same gentleman who had been at the head of the bureau, but the form of a new nomination and confirmation had to be observed.

Mr. BLAINE took the same view and argued that if the President, immediately after the passage of the bill, ignored Mr. Rollins and nominated a Commissioner, it would present a very serious question whether he had not a legal right to do so.

Mr. JUDD replied to that objection and argued that Congress had the right to impose additional duties upon an officer of the government, and that was all the section proposed to do.

Messrs. LOGAN, SCHENCK and others replied to the objections to the section, claiming there was nothing in it which militated with the constitutional provision in regard to appointments.

Mr. GARFIELD supported a modification of the section by striking out the part which makes a separate department.

Mr. FARNSWORTH opposed the section, when the House took a recess.

At the evening session Messrs. FARNSWORTH, INGERSOLL, BLAINE and POLAND opposed and Mr. SCHENCK advocated the section.

Mr. POLAND moved to amend by providing that the President should by and with the advice and consent of the Senate appoint the head of the Department.

Mr. JUDD'S amendment was agreed to.

Mr. GARFIELD moved to amend the section by making it read, "That the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue be continued," whereupon Mr. BLAINE withdrew his motion to strike out the section.

After debate the question was taken on Mr. GARFIELD'S amendment—ayes 47; nays 46; no quorum.

The roll was called and ninety-five members answered.

The vote was again taken—ayes forty-six, nays forty-nine.

The Chair voted in the negative, making a quorum, and the amendment was rejected.

Mr. JONES moved to amend by providing that the Commissioner shall be appointed with the advice and consent of the Senate. Rejected.

Mr. FARNSWORTH moved to strike out the section. Rejected, only thirty-six voting yes.

Mr. SELEE offered an amendment to the third section, that no female clerks be employed, except wives, widows or daughters of soldiers who served in the late war in the army of the United States. Rejected—forty against fifty-seven.

TRADE CONVENTION.

National Organization—Constitution Prepared for Adoption.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—The National Board of Trade Convention reassembled this morning, the temporary chairman, Chas. G. Nasro, in the chair.

On motion of C. J. Hoffman, of Philadelphia, the various delegates were called, and the chairman of each reported the action of the Board he represented had taken with reference to the new system of weights and measures. The majority of the gentlemen reported that no action had been taken by their Boards. They await some action by Congress.

Henry T. Blow, of St. Louis, presented the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the President to consider the material interests of the country and to present briefly those leading features necessary to a thorough discussion of all means necessary to be employed for their rapid development on a more substantial, economical and comprehensive basis.

Several gentlemen argued the resolution was out of order, from the fact that the present organization was but a temporary one.

The Chair ruled, that it being only a preliminary subject, and one which may be adopted or rejected by the permanent organization, it was in order.

The resolution was therefore adopted, and the Chair appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee: Messrs. Blow, St. Louis; Henry, Portland; Froley, Philadelphia; Green, Milwaukee; Davis, Cincinnati.

Mr. Fraley, of Philadelphia, submitted the following:

WHEREAS, The revenue laws of the United States now existing were enacted before steam locomotion both by lake and ocean had revolutionized the manner of conducting the great and commercial enterprise of the world; and Whereas, The provisions of these laws required the entry and appraisal of all goods imported for account of parties resident at interior ports to be made at the port of arrival; and Whereas, This provision of law is without benefit to any one by the greatly overcrowding of certain Custon Houses, by interposing unnecessary delays and expenses, and by necessitating many intermediate agencies at the post of arrival, operates to retard the legitimate current of trade between foreign producers and consumers of the interior of the country, and thus curtails the revenues of the government by discouraging foreign trade; and Whereas, A bill has been passed by the House of Representatives designed to remove many of the difficulties interposed by the present laws, therefore

Resolved, That this organization do most urgently solicit of the honorable Senate of the United States now in session an equally favorable consideration of said bill and its enactment into a law.

The Chair decided the preamble and resolution at the present stage out of order.

Mr. Froley moved they be referred to the permanent organization for consideration:

A motion to lay on the table prevailed, to enable the Committee on By-Laws and Constitution to present their report.

In answer to the invitation of the Presbytery and people of Monmouth, Ill., the next General Assembly was appointed to meet there on the 4th Wednesday of May, 1869, 2 o'clock, P. M. in 2d Church.

MONDAY 9 A. M. The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the subject of Union amongst the Presbyterian Churches, in response to the invitation by the Philadelphia Convention last November.

The ground was taken that Union amongst evangelical Churches was greatly desirable, and that it seemed to be most practicable amongst the different Presbyterian bodies, yet it was necessary to be careful least the cause of truth suffer in the attempt; that the Philadelphia Basis was not a satisfactory platform, yet as it might serve as the basis of negotiations for something more satisfactory, and as it is desirable to cultivate amongst brethren of different denominations a kind and fraternal spirit, it recommended the appointment of a Committee of five to meet with similar Committees from the other Churches. The Committee, to be appointed in due time, are directed in all negotiations to maintain in their integrity all the principles exhibited in the Westminster Confession and Catechisms.

In view of the great harmony existing in the Assembly on this and the other important subject of Christian Communion, which was acted upon last week, Dr. Pressly was called upon to lead the Assembly in prayer, and thanksgiving, after which the 126th Psalm was sung.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported that the article in the Directory for Worship, forbidding the use of instrumental music in the worship of God, which was overtured to Presbyteries, was adopted by a large majority and was therefore declared the law of the Church. The same Committee also reported that the overture for a permanent Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions was rejected by a vote of 330 to 124.

Dr. Lambert, delegate from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (N. S.) was introduced and addressed the Assembly. Amongst other interesting remarks he expressed the opinion that the proposed reunion between the Old and New School Assemblies was likely to fail, or at least be postponed by reason of the opposition of a strong minority in the Old School Assembly.

The Moderator in his reply referred to the fact that in former times they and we were united in opposition to slavery and were each now amongst the foremost in endeavoring to educate and evangelize the freedmen.

—On Thursday night last Mr. Crabtree, father of Lotta, the actress, had some difficulty with his wife, at St. Louis, which resulted in his taking from his wife's trunk $25,000 government bonds and $10,000 in greenbacks, the earnings of his daughter, and leaving next morning for New York. He also struck his daughter and carried off all her jewelry, leaving her and her mother without any money and an unpaid board bill. Crabtree announced his purpose to return to England and live at ease off his daughter's earnings. The affair has created a good deal of feeling at St. Louis, where Lotta is a great favorite.

SWEET SIXTEEN.

I.

Dear lady when I look at one
So lovely and so loved as you,
From whose young life has not yet gone
The rose's blush, the morning's dew,
I sigh to think of all the years
Whose faded memories rise between
This and the time when, long ago,
I lost my heart to Sweet Sixteen.

II.

Prate as they may of wiser thought,
Of cooler blood and steadier brain,
Of earnest wisdom, dearly bought
By anxious care and saddening pain;
In all the years old Time can bring,
In all the longest life has seen,
There are no hopes, no joys, no loves,
So sweet as those of Sweet Sixteen!

III.

And though the charm may wear away,
As roses fade and dews exhale;
Though glossiest locks may turn to gray,
And fairest cheeks grow wan and pale;
Yet who can doubt those dearly loved,
In lands of mortal eye unseen
Beyond the stars, shall all regain
The angel hues of Sweet Sixteen!

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 4, 1868.

CATTLE.

The Cattle trade at these yards is almost entirely suspended; the sales since this day week only reached fifty head, scarcely a respectable business for even a small operator. There were two buyers here from Philadelphia, both of whom were unable to buy a single bullock, for the very good reason there were none here on sale. This time last year the pens were full of Cattle, and business was active; while to-day, they are nearly all empty, and there is so little doing that it is scarcely deserving the name of a market. The great difficulty is the fact that freights are much cheaper by other routes, and, as a consequence, all the heavy shippers take whatever route is the cheapest. Such men as John Moss and Scott & Martin, of Southern Ohio, who last summer and fall, shipped from five to ten cars of stock per week, are now shipping to New York by another route, and the same is true of other drovers we could name; drovers are like other men, they will ship by whatever road will carry their stock the cheapest, no matter if they do have to do it in a round-about way. There would be no trouble in disposing of a goodly number of cattle every week now if they were only here; it is true, of late there have been but very few buyers, but this is owing mainly to the fact that there is nothing here for them to buy. It is not reasonable to expect men to come here from Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York, when the chances are that they will get nothing when they come, and will be obliged to return as they came, empty handed. We quote the following sales:

Hedges & Taylor sold 16 head of good Indiana steers for Jarred & Bro. to Peter Klemen at $114 per head.

Haskett to Peter Klemen 15 head of prime Ohio steers, weighing 20,300 pounds, at 9,20.

R. Crum sold 19 head of commonish stock for McBane to Jas. Aull at 7.

Jos. Aull sold 23 head of light stock, to go east, averaging 900, at 7,20.

SHEEP.

Under the influence of diminished arrivals and a fair demand, the Sheep market ruled a shade firmer than last week, and in some instances a slight advance was realized. As a general thing, however, prices were about the same as last week, though as we have already remarked, the supply was not so large, although pretty well up to the demand. Had there been as many on sale as there was last week, prices would have still further declined, and it was in the favor of those who had Sheep on sale that such was not the case. There was a very fair attendance of buyers, among others, Henry and Adam Deitrich, Pancoast, Loyd, Pearce, Maynes and Erisman.

Hedges & Taylor sold 128 head for Moore to Deitrich at 5; 53 for Harrington to Aull & Myers at 4: 231 for Evans to McCurdy at 4; 175 for Murray to Daugherty at 5; 175 for Jones to Pearce at 5¼.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 207 head for McFadden to Pidcock & Co. at 5½; 94 for Sargeant to same buyers at 6; 88 for Logan to same at 4½; 199 for same to Deitrich at 5¼; 152 for Montgomery to Loyd at 5,30; 200 to Aull & Myers at 5¼.

Smith & Talmage sold 105 head for Tibbels to Pearce at 4¾; 225 for Hisey to Maynes at 4¾; 310 for Parshall & Co. to Aull & Myers at $2,50 per head; 422 for Millard to same buyers at $2,75 per head.

Erisman & Pidcock bought 100 head from J. Marion, averaging 78½ lbs, at $3 per head; 205 from Gattens, averaging 78, at $3,80 per cwt.

Pancoast bought 218 head from Wyning at 4,80; 202 from Clark at 5½; 140 from Hasson at 4¾; 139 from Carnes at 4¼.

J. Loyd bought 210 from Armstrong, averaging 90 lbs, at 6; 230 from Crawford, averaging 80, at 5½.

McClain & Co. to Adam Deitrich, 685 head at $4 per head, averaging 85 lbs; 82 head from another party at 4c; 201 from Clark, averaging 91 lbs, at 5¼.

HOGS.

The Hog market has been rather quiet during the past week, and light averages, suitable for New York market, ruled from ½ to 1c per pound lower. Prime fat Hogs, such as are usually shipped to Philadelphia, remain about the same as last week, ranging from 10 to 10¼—one drove of extra bringing 10½. New York Hogs to-day cannot be quoted above 7½ to 7¾ The following are the sales:

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point, with five feet five inches in the Monongahela, and six feet three inches in the Allegheny. The weather yesterday was oppressively hot in the sun, and while this is not very favorable for the river, it is just what is needed for the growing crops.

The St. Charles, from Cincinnati, and Wild Duck, from St. Louis, constitute the arrivals, and the Robt. Moore, from Portsmouth, was due last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The McCullough, for Cincinnati, with an excellent trip, cleared on time.

The Bayard, Capt. Shepard, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The St. Charles, Capt. Chas. A. Dravo, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day, leaving at 5 p. m. She is a large and splendid side-wheeler, and offers superior inducements to passengers.

The Ameriea, in command of Captain Adam Poe, with the veteran Capt. Murdoch, in the office, will leave for St. Louis to-day, positively, and passengers and shippers shoutd bear this in mind.

The Argosy and Kate Putnam left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

The Mary Davage and barges left here on Wednesday for St. Louis.

Messrs. Evans, Dallas & Gilmore received a telegram from St. Louis yesterday, announcing the arrival of the Peninah, Captain Haney, at Fort Benton on May 31st. She left again for St. Louis on June 2d.

The Argosy and Kate Putnam were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the St. Marys on Thursday.

The Messenger, en route for St. Louis, and the Delaware, for Nashville, were at Louisville on Wednesday.

We clip the following in regard to the death of Capt. Alexander McGowin, from the St. Louis Democrat:

Capt. A. McGowin, lately commanding the St. Louis and Pittsburgh steamer Armenia, is no more. His remains were forwarded by rail yesterday to his family near Pittsburgh, in a metallic coffin. He was slightly indisposed on Thursday, but continued in command, the boat leaving this port Saturday at 4 a. m. for the iron pile at Carondolet. A physician had been treating his case, but he became rapidly worse, and about two o'clock on that day he died, when the boat was nearly ready to sail for Pittsburgh. His disease was pronounced congestion of the bowels. Few men leave behind warmer friends than were those of Captain McGowin. He was unassuming, straight-forward in his dealings, and truly an honest man.

The Leni Leoti, loaded with government stores for Fort Benton, struck a snag near Otoe City on Thursday morning last, and sunk in three feet water. Fortunately the damage to her timbers was light. The hole was at once closed, and the water bailed out.

The New Orleans Crescent of the 29th, is informed that the Ouachita was on a stand at Trenton, but rising slowly below Columbia. No fears, however, are entertained of a general overflow, though possibly a few low places may go under. The crops are reported as being in good condition along the Mississippi and its tributatries, and we feel confident that our steamboatmen will find next season a profitable one.

The St. Louis Republican of Tuesday, says: The towboat J. W. Garrett arrived from Pittsburgh with an immense tow of barges loaded with a full assortment of manufactured articles, including one item of 15,000 kegs nails; she also brought a large quantity of salt.

The Princess, sunk in the Missouri, was loaded, principally, with Government freight, under the Kountz and Hazlet contract, she was valued at $15,000, and insured for $10,000 in St. Louis offices.

The Vicksburg Times says of the Mollie Able, on passing that point: "We understood from her officers that she had eleven hundred tons of pound freight, five hundred and sixty head of cattle, and ninety cabin passengers. Barring accidents, her owners will have no cause to find fault with her earnings on this trip. The same paper hears it rumored that the Robert E. Lee is to enter the St. Louis trade, and that a negotiation is pending by which certain parties at the Mound City will become interested in her."

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Tuesday, says: The Sallie, from Pittsburgh, arrived at Benton May 25, and St. Luke on the 28th, with all her freight; also, on the 25th, the Only Chance, with 200 tuns—first through cargo; the Miner, also, on the 25th. The Garrett, with two big barges in tow, brought 15,044 packages of nails, 1,550 bbls of salt, &c. She carried on the trip a total of 1,050 tuns. The Champion left Carondelet to-day, loaded mainly with pig iron, iron ore, and a church organ. The Lawrence leaves to-day. The Upper Mississippi is stationary, heavy rains having fallen. The Missouri is rising at Omaha about 5 inches per day. A telegram dated June 2, from Helena, reports the Missouri high at Fort Benton and below. The streams were all rising from the late rains and snows, and no fears about boats all getting to Fort Benton.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 139⅞.

THE ARKANSAS BILL has gone to a Conference Committee, whose report may be deferred for a day or two. There is little doubt, however, of an early agreement of both Houses.

THE nominations made by the recent Union Republican Conventions give very general satisfaction throughout the county, and we can now safely rely on giving the full majority pledged by a delegate at Chicago.

ORGANIZE for the campaign. Every ward and district should promptly form GRANT clubs, for experience in previous campaigns has demonstrated that such auxiliaries to the party are largely conducive to its success.

THE Senate, after a very brief session yesterday, adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of ex-President BUCHANAN, whose funeral ceremonies were in progress at Lancaster. For the same reason the Executive Departments at Washington were closed to the public, and the the usual honors were also paid at all military posts and naval stations in the country.

THE Pittsburgh Post volunteers its counsel to Republicans who were unsuccessful candidates before the recent Conventions. Our neighbor need not concern itself anxiously in that respect. Its counsels will have no weight with honorable men who value more highly the obligations which they assumed, in deferring their aspirations to the regular and authoritative arbitrament of the Republican tribunal. None will abide by its decisions more cordially than will the gentlemen whom the Post dishonors by its allusions.

THE rebel Democracy at Washington, believing that they had elected their candidate for Mayor, were very noisy and demonstrative in their rejoicings. The next evening the friends of the Republican candidate, BOWEN, who was discovered to be really chosen, gave him a serenade in turn. The rebels, infuriated by their disappointment, made several attacks upon the Republicans, which were promptly repelled, and, as might have been expected, somebody was hurt. The Copperhead newspapers feel very bad, therefore, over what they style negro outrages.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The Presidential campaign may now be regarded as open, and the Republican should at once set himself about to do whatever good he can in the cause. We know of no better way to make votes than by educating the people up to the proper standard, so that they may know how to discriminate at the ballot-box in favor of the party having the greatest interest in the welfare of the country, and holding principles not at variance with the fullest idea of a Republican form of Government. The best channels through which to reach the masses and to spread before them the live issues of the hour, are well conducted and fearlessly edited newspapers. They are the educators of the people, and, when properly directed, one journal silently accomplishes more good than could a thousand stump orators or zealous canvassers. In view of this fact, all earnest adherents to the great political principles held by the Republican party should bestir themselves to increase the circulation of able journals in their districts, so that no man in his ignorance will be entrapped into the support of men and measures antagonistic to the best interests of the country.

The Pittsburgh Weekly GAZETTE, the largest, cheapest and best weekly journal in the Commonwealth, and the leading Republican paper of Western Pennsylvania, is placed within the reach of all, and if our friends will cooperate, it will be enabled to accomplish much good work in the Presidential canvass. Aside from its high political character, it is a live, gossippy and readable newspaper, which will commend itself to the intelligent farmer, merchant or mechanic. Send for a specimen copy, and introduce it to the attention of your neighbors.

THE MOORHEAD TARIFF BILL.

The House very wisely declines, at this late period of the session, to engage in the consideration of the new tariff bill, which was reported a day or two since. It is suggested that the duties upon a very few specified articles, at present admitted under rates which work a needless injustice to our domestic industry, may perhaps be so amended as to make them more in conformity to the equitable claims of American manufacturers, but it seems to have been decisively agreed that the measure, as a whole, shall remain over, for action at the next session.

Nor is the proposed effort to secure, as suggested, a modification of the present rate upon a few articles, quite certain to succeed. We need hardly remind the readers of the GAZETTE that we pointed out, some time since, the difficulties which embarrass the partial adjustment of any tariff, and which are only magnified when the whole broad subject is opened. Each, of the multiform interests into which our home manufacturing industry is sub-divided, has, among members, a more or less extended circle of special advocates. A few great leading trades, like those working in the metals, and in the production of fabrics from cotton and wool, are powerfully influential, among a great number of constituencies scattered throughout the Middle and Eastern States. But there are many other branches of productive labor depending for their profitable results upon conditions in which the cost of the raw material and the access to our markets afforded to foreign competition are controlling elements, which are far less extended in their local development, being, in some cases, confined to but one or two districts, and yet having much local importance and thereby direct political influence sufficient to ensure the earnestly faithful solicitude of their respective representatives. We may safely say that, in the States referred to, not a single district is without some special interest of its own, in some department of productive manufacture, which its direct representative in Congress would quite properly consider himself bound to protect from injurious legislation. And these various interests are certain to be found, in every discussion upon a general tariff measure, more or less conflicting with each other. Hence, such measures are inevitably debated at great length, and an ultimate adjustment of all interests must be the result of concession, compromise and mutual support. Nor has any measure of this sort, in the history of our legislation, been enacted with a hearty acquiescence from all sides in either branch of Congress.

Another element of difficulty has appeared of late, to embarrass still more the adjustment of a general tariff. The principle of protection to home industry has, in former discussions, been generally accepted, by at least one great party, as of paramount consequence, regarded as an essentially leading element in any adjustment, and to be vindicated irrespective of all other considerations. For over twenty years, the Whig party made this principle a prominent feature in all its declarations, and faithfully respected it in moulding our National legislation. A cardinal doctrine in the Whig creed, it was held to be a test of political faith, and no politician or public man was held to be sound in that faith unless he gave a hearty support to this dogma. It was moreover most acceptable, not only to the masses of that party, but to the people irrespective of party lines, throughout the Northern States, east or west, even in communities which were almost exclusively agricultural. In no State was the principle more acceptable than to the people of Pennsylvania, and, although it was recognized as eminently a Whig doctrine, yet many a Democratic politician of this State owed his election to office to his hearty endorsement of a principle which commended itself so favorably to the popular judgment.

The people of Pennsylvania are still believers in the doctrine which demands for native industry the protection of the Nation. And the popular majorities, in most of the Middle and Eastern States, in which manufactures constitute a predominant interest, stand by the side of our own State on this question. But the time has come for all of us to realize that tariffs for protection are no longer political measures, nor are they able to count upon an unbroken line of partizan support. There is no party in this country to-day, which holds itself committed as a political organization, to this doctrine. We do not consider it as a recognized article of Republican faith. On the contrary, we are free to say that the doctrine has become an unpopular one in several strongly Republican States. Passing the Western boundary of Ohio, there is not perhaps a single State in which it would now be favorably received. Those communities have come to consider that their own interests are specially agricultural and that, instead of sustaining a system of high imposts, which has the primary effect of increasing the price of such manufactured articles as are largely consumed by their people, it is clearly for their advantage to throw open their markets for the freest competition, and to purchase the fabrics of those who make and sell the cheapest. Whether this opinion be sound or not, a discussion upon its merits would be very broad and is quite unnecessary now. We propose only to refer to facts as they are. And these are the facts which are patent; that protection of that sort is no longer of a party creed; that its most vigorous opponents would be found to-day among communities which are effectively of the Republican faith; that the dogma is no longer National but local; that, even in those States where it is still prominently presented, it has lost much of its former strength; that its maintenance heretofore in legislation has had the effect of so fostering domestic interests that many of these now feel able, by their experience, skill and capital, to defy foreign competition on any equal terms; that, as a National principle, it has lost, therefore, much of its importance; that the needs of the Treasury ought hereafter to be the leading consideration in the adjustment of imposts, and that the duty of so arranging tariffs for revenue as to have, incidentally, a just regard for the interests of domestic production, is acknowledged by all except the absolute free traders.

In this question of incidental protection, the difficulty is found to be, not one of principle, but of the diversity of conflicting interests, and that is the difficulty which the new bill just reported by Gen. MOORHEAD'S sub-committee will find most tedious and perplexing. It is, therefore, most judiciously laid aside, with the intention, we may hope, of devoting the remaining days of this session to questions of more immediately pressing National consequence. The bill will come up next winter, with the opening of the session, when it will receive that careful consideration which will be due alike to the intrinsic importance of the subject, and to the special merits of the measure itself. This, we are quite sure, has been prepared with the skill and judicious care always characteristic of General MOORHEAD and his associates upon the Committee, and we predict that it will bear the closest examination from Congress.

NO HURRY ABOUT IT.

Congress will find the rest of the session fully occupied in the re-adjustment of the internal taxes, in re-organizing the civil service—for which the admirable bill proposed by Mr. JENCKES points out a practical and compreheusive plan—in completing the work of reconstruction, about which there should be great care and no unnecessary haste, and in probing to the bottom of the shameful facts of the impeachment corruptions. The whisky business alone requires patient consideration and ought to be thoroughly ventilated. This will take time. There is work enough, in the great measures of leading importance here indicated, to say nothing of many minor matters, to engage the closest attention of both Houses until the early part of July. They will be fortunate if all their business shall have been properly completed by that date. With so much to be done herein, they have acted judiciously in deferring to next winter the very important tariff bill just reported by Gen. MOORHEAD. That measure concerns a subject of too much consequence to be hastily and superficially treated. The internal tax question will include the operations of the whisky ring, which is so potent and absolute in its influence that it has been running more than one department of the Government for the past two years. It must be broken up at whatever cost, or it will have accomplished, by the time that the present infamous Administration expires, more fatal mischief to the highest interests of the Republic than even the rebellion out of which it has grown. There is work enough to employ Congressional time and labor for six weeks to come. The people want it to be done, and well done, and will be very likely to distrust any excuses which might be offered for a failure. They pay Congress by the year, and mean that the work shall be faithfully completed, if it takes a whole twelve month.

Senators and Representatives can dismiss their affectionate solicitude for the welfare of the Republican party during the political canvass, in their absence at the Capital. We should be very glad to have their aid, as speakers and counsellors, in the labors of the campaign. But the party which elected them can, in a pinch, contrive to get along without them in the popular field, provided they will faithfully serve the interests of both the country and the party, in the meantime, at Washington. No! gentlemen, dont be in a hurry to come home until you can face your constituents on the record. If, at any time, the opposition press too hard upon the feeble Republicanism which remains at home, we will send for you to help us out of the fight. Until then, we would rather risk it alone than to have your own proper duty neglected.

THERE are again rumors of the serious illness of the Emperor NAPOLEON, and European politics are deeply agitated in view of the possible complications to result from a fatal termination of his malady. Yet these apprehensions seem to us to have a slender foundation. No dynasty, since the death of LOUIS XIVth, has been so securely fixed in the hearts of the French people as that which the third NAPOLEON has revived, continued and strengthened. He has secured their attachment to his family by the most powerful ties. Not only the higher impulses of patriotism, and of the National honor which he has jealously and in the main successfully guarded, but the more general and popular, and therefore the more potent, element of selfish interest, also, have uniformly and faithfully sustained his Empire, and will find a people gratefully ready to submit the succession to his son. And, perhaps, since his elevation to power eighteen years since, there has been no period so favorable as at present, for securing the National concurrence in this succession. France is at peace with the world, enjoys the greatest and most solid material prosperity, and in neither her foreign policy nor her domestic situation can any disturbing element be found. The Emperor is long past the prime of his life, his health has been for some years much impaired, and the friends of his dynasty cannot but regard the present as a most favorable hour for the change. France would contentedly crown his son NAPOLEON IVth, and the rule which France accepts, Europe is quite certain to respect.

THE Alta Californian, of San Francisco, in an article on the proposed new Territory of Lincoln, says:

The rapid extension of the Union Pacific Railroad has directed public attention to the great outlying regions variously known as the Plains, or the Great American Desert, and it has been found that the Desert is no desert at all, and the Plains are an undulating, rolling country, belted with timber, laced with streams, and rich in beds of ore and mineral deposit. The rapidity with which the great space to be shortly organized into a Territory has settled up is another instance of the enterprise of our population, and their alertness to discover new fields for the occupation and satisfaction of that restless spirit which pervades the whole country.

NEW YORK is to be lively next month. The National Democratic Convention will bring thither not only the usual mob of outside hangers-on, reputable and disreputable, who turn up on such occasions, but a special importation will be made from Cincinnati. The invoice will be labelled the "Pendleton Escort," and is intended to be used for the advancement of that gentleman's claims as a candidate. The city in the meantime is confident in its own domestic talent, and the notorious Rynders has reorganized his Empire Club and declares himself for CHASE. There was an old rivalry between the two candidates, when both were residents of the Queen City, but all that was mere child's play to what we shall see when their respective adherents "go in on their muscle" to show the best man. These old rivalries of twenty years since, re-appearing again upon that distant theatre, show how the revolutions of time prove that there is nothing new under the sun. In the meantime, it is well to remember that CHASE, as a politician, has been uniformly successful in his personal rivalries, and that the precedents, in his case, are all favorable to another triumph at New York.

The Republican Executive Committee.

The Eastern Division of the National Republican Executive Committee met at Washington on the 2d inst. to initiate campaign measures. There were present Governor Claflin, of Massachusetts, Greeley, of New York, Starkweather, of Connecticut and Chandler of New Hampshire, Secretary of the Committee. They were in consultation with the Congressional Union Committee with a view of arranging the labors of the Committee so as to work with harmony. They will meet again in New York on the 19th inst., and will then open their headquarters in that city, and proceed at once with the vigorous work of the campaign. Both Committees agree that the proper way to succeed is to go on with the work in the Southern States most vigorously, as the contest in most of them is likely to be very close.

I HAVE heard a story to-night relative to the writing of General Grant's letter of acceptance, which may be interesting to the admirers of the General. A prominent gentleman called on the General yesterday morning at his headquarters, and the conversation turned on the Chicago nomination. "By the way," said Grant, "I have to write that letter," and as he said so he turned to his desk and wrote it in a few minutes. When it was written he called in the members of his staff and read it to them. Only one word was objected to, and the General yielded and changed it. The whole thing did not occupy more than ten minutes, and it was copied and put into the mails within half an hour.—Washington Letter.

A COMPANY of practical iron manufacturers, of New York, at the head of which stands Hon. Wm. Kelly, of Rhinebeck, New York, and Judge Parrott, of the West Point Foundery, has been organized for the purpose of manufacturing pig metal, with Broad Top ore, at Riddlesburg, two miles east of Bedford, Pa. They have already commenced operations, preparatory to the erection of the furnace, which is to be sixty feet high, with fourteen feet boshes, and it is the intention of the company to have the furnace in operation the coming fall.

THE new Constitution of Florida contains a provision requiring educational qualifications in all persons voting for the first time in 1880. The time seems unnecessarily distant, but this is a step in the right direction. It is impartial in its application and will, if adhered to, have a beneficial effect on public affairs. The fact that such a provision has been inserted shows that the suffrage is still regarded as a trust, involving corresponding responsibility; and this is something nowadays.

A BRIEF analysis of the "arguments" which influenced the "consciences" of the seven recreant Republican Senators in the impeachment matter may be given as follows:

Trumbull—Chronic quibbling.
Fessenden—Disappointed ambition.
Grimes—Prejudice.
Ross—Greenbacks.
Fowler—A. J.'s daughter.
Van Winkle—Ponderous stupidity.

GENERAL CHARES F. MANDERSON, of Canton, Ohio, declines the appointment as a delegate to the "National Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention" to be held in New York on the 4th of July. The General says: "I cannot but ask myself, of what mean thing I have been guilty, that I should be the recipient of the praise implied by such appointment at the hands of men who have deserted the flag under which they once fought."

TERRIBLE DEATH.—Last fall a man named Perry was left upon one of the islands in Lake Superior to tend to the light house upon it. The supply of provisions left with him was small, and the winter closed in with severity and no communication could be had with him. This spring, as soon as it was possible, a brother proceeded to ascertain his fate, when his body was found. He had been starved to death.

THE Democracy of old Berks are completely disheartened. The nomination of Grant and Colfax has thrown a wet blanket upon their bright hopes, in that county as well as in all other parts of the country. The sensible men of that party in this county acknowledge that no ticket that may be nominated in New York can defeat the Chicago nominees.

SOME strange disclosures have lately been made in Paris in regard to the confinement of a number of persons, believed to be perfectly sane, in lunatic asylums. The Emperor has taken up the matter, has directed a searching official inquiry to be made, and intends himself to visit Charenton and some other mad hause.

THE planting season having been so unfavorable in the northern part of this State, and particularly in Erie county, the Court of Quarter Sessions was deferred for a week, in order to afford farmers subpœnaed as witnesses and jurors time to attend to their work.

ALL over the country, in the great corn growing region, the complaint is the same, that mists and rains have either prevented the planting of corn, or rotted that put into the ground, so that we shall not have an average half crop of this grain.

"THE SOLDIER'S RETURN."—Maj. Gen. Hooker comes home from Europe in the St. Laurent, now at New York. We regret to learn that while his own health is not improved, that of his devoted wife has broken down.

IT IS said that Perry Fuller, one of Senator Ross' bosom friends, has just had a claim for one hundred thousand dollars settled in his favor in one of the departments.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

The following letter has been received by a gentleman in Columbia, South Carolina:

DEAR SIR:—I have your letter in reference to the removal of your political disabilities. I am not sure that the time has yet come to make exceptions to our general policy in individual cases. To do so would be to open the door to innumerable applications, and once open it would be difficult to shut it. I hope to meet such cases as yours by some general enactment, and as soon as the condition of the country will permit, I shall be the first to advocate the removal of all disabilities under which you labor at present.

Yours truly, CHARLES SUMNER.

A caucus of Republican Senators was held yesterday at ten o'clock to select new officers for the Senate. Mr. Anthony, of Rhode Island, was chosen Chairman; Mr. Drake, of Missouri, as Secretary. The first selection to be made was for Secretary. The names of a number of candidates were proposed. On the third ballot Mr. Gorham, of California, who was the Republican candidate for Governor of that State last year, but defeated, was chosen by one majority. Major General Burbridge, who was supported by the Senators who believed that the soldier element should be represented among some of the officers of the Senate, especially as the Senate has repeatedly declared its preference for soldiers for officers over civilians, received the next highest number of votes. Twelve o'clock, the time at which the Senate assembles, arriving, the caucus adjourned till Monday next, without balloting for the remainder of the officers to be chosen. The Senate as soon as assembled proceeded to elect Mr. Gorham Secretary in place of Colonel Forney, whose resignation was accepted, and then at once adjourned, out of respect to the memory of Ex-President Buchanan.

J. Ross Browne has gone to New York on his way to China. Last night he and Mr. Burlingame had a long interview. A formal introduction of Mr. Burlingame to the President will probably take place to-day. Mr. Burlingame, accompanied by the principal members of the Embassy, in the evening will visit the opera, at an invitation from the Secretary of State, and on Saturday they will visit the tomb of Washington. At night they will be entertained by the Secretary.

—The Herald's Washington dispatch contains the following: Eight hundred thousand acres of land in Southern Kansas were deeded a few years ago to the Cherokee Indians by the Government, in return for half a million of dollars in gold, held in trust by the Government for the Cherokees. The land being unoccupied and unclaimed, was taken possession of by settlers and pre-empted, fifty thousand farmers being now settled on the land under the homestead law. The Indians in 1866 demanded the value of their land, and by some maneuvering it is alleged of Mr. Harlan, then Secretary of the Interior, it was bought by speculators, and thus the settlers who could have paid more than the speculators, are in a way to be ousted or swindled. This peculiar arrangement was originally fixed upon in secret session.

—A Montreal special says: The Fenians are quiet at Malone and St. Albans. There are twenty-five thousand stand of arms at Ogdensburg, and beef and pork for six thousand men for ten days on its way. An attack is menaced on Prescott and Cornwall to cut the canal. Government detectives at every point report all ominously quiet. A raid is certain before the first of July. The Dominion Government protests against the removal of troops, and insists on three regiments being sent out and four batteries. Two batteries have been sent to the front, and two millions rounds cartridges.

—The annual examination of the military cadets at West Point commenced on Tuesday, the corps passing in review before the Board of Visitors. The graduating class this year is somewhat smaller than that of last year. The corps of naval cadets from Annapolis will attend the examination near the close in their own vessel.

EVERY VIOLATION

Of the laws of health invariably entails its own punishment, and the warnings administered by the faithful monitor (pain) cannot be neglected with impunity. If its admonitions were heeded, and the proper remedy immediately resorted to, a vast amount of suffering would be prevented, and dangerous diseases averted. When the head throbs, the lips become parched, and the cheek is burning—the warning is given; neglect is then dangerous. In the vast storehouses of nature may be found remedies for all the different maladies that afflict mankind, without resorting to pernicious minerals. The best of these medicinal agents have been incorporated in the preparation known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and offered as a safe remedy to those suffering from the various forms of fever. This medicine has steadily and surely won its way into the confidence of the public, and has received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, should recommend it to all classes o our community.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

DR. KEYSER says: "You want air, not physic; you want pure air, not medicated air; you want plenty of nutrition, such as plenty of meat and bread will give; physic has no nutriment; gasping for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you; and stimulants cannot cure you. If you want to get well, go in for BEEF AND OUT-DOOR AIR."—Republic.

He says further: Don't put off the first symptoms. "A little leak may sink a great ship;" a small sore in the throat, lungs or liver will soon involve the whole body. How often do we see people put off for a year or two what in the beginning could have been remedied for a trifle. The Doctor's advice is, and always has been, attend to the first symptoms of disease. Do not let the constitution become a wreck before you begin to mend; if you do, ten to one there will be no remedy. There is a remedy for every disease if taken in time. A slight sore throat or cough may be removed with comparatively little trouble; but a constitution, sinking and breaking to pieces by allowing these little troubles to accumulate is not so easy. Dr. Keyser's mode of lung sounding is unique, and as thorough as it is unique. There is not a spot or space over the whole surface of the lungs that he does not sound and investigate, and by so doing is enabled to supply the appropriate remedy.

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTCAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;

ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

JOHN J. CISCO, Treasurer,

STEAM

CARPET BEATING

ESTABLISHMENT.

Which TEN YEARS' TRIAL in New York and other Eastern cities has proved a complete success.

ITS ADVANTAGES:

1st—Fading and Shrinkage are completely avoided.
2d—No ripping apart necessary.
3d—When freed from dust, moths or their larvae, the Carpet looks nearly as good as new, save the natural fading from wear.
4th—When perfectly clean, a Carpet will wear as long again, a desirable matter as a mere point of economy, to say nothing of looks.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 4, 1868.

The premium on gold has receded from 140¼ to 139⅞, market weak. The advance yesterday morning from 139⅝ to 140¼ brought out a great many sellers, and the aggregate sales amounted to more than double the usual transactions. It is entirely a brokers market, and outsiders can not operate at all; the commissions either way swallow up all profits. The shipments of coin this week will reach an amount equal to that of last week, but it is supposed that the future shipments of coin will be much reduced by the large number of commercial bills now on the market, and the drafts against shipment of bonds.

Government bonds were decidedly lower to-day. The large speculators, when they noticed the anxiety from dealers to secure a sufficient amount of bonds during the Treasury's suspension of conversion, sold out their stock on hand and brought down the market. Should money remain at 3 per cent. for Government collateral, there is no telling where bonds will go to, but it is at present just as dangerous to buy and hold for higher prices, as it is to sell them deliverable at a future period. The fact that there are two markets to operate in Governments makes dealing more dangerous, except to buy them when very low and sell when they are high. The market prices are high, and whether a further advance will take place or not, those who have bought with the purpose to sell at an advance, are sure to make a handsome profit by selling now.

The high prices for Governments has advanced the Union Pacific Railroad bonds, and the present supply is exhausted with the Treasurer. Orders will hereafter be taken for the July deliveries, and the interest be adjusted in currency at six per cent. It is quite likely that these bonds will be advanced to 105 within the next four weeks.

Stocks are dull and lower; Fort Wayne still further declined to-day to 111, it having touched 116½; 120 was the price fixed at by speculators, and purchasers were made at 115, under the above delusion, but the cliques bought at from 102 to 105, and could well afford at a profit of about ten per cent. within a fortnight. The balance of the list is also lower, and the depression in gold and bonds seems to be the work of the shrewd operators. Express stocks are dull although steady; the constant robberies of large amounts of bonds and money have breught these companies in discredit with capitalists.

In Miniug shares more doing, but the market is in sympathy with all other stocks.

Money is easier for first-class short paper at 8 fo 10 per cent., and long paper is not much in favor. Business is dull.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139¾; 1881 bonds, 116¾; 1862 5-20s, 112½; 1864 do, 110½; 1865 do, 110; Consols, 112; 10-40s, 105¾; 7-30s, 109¾.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 87; Fort Wayne, 111¼; North Western, common 69⅞; North Western—preferred, 81¾; New York Central, 133¾; Erie, 69½; Old Southern, 89¾; Ohio & Mississippi, 29⅞; Merchants Union Express, 28; Western Union Telegraph, 38½. Mining Shares—Corydon 32; Quartz Hill, 110; Quicksilver, 29.

—The Philadelphia Press, of Wednesday, says: In the money market there is quite a plethora of loanable funds seeking employment at comparatively low rates. This is a natural consequence of the general inertness of commercial affairs, which require but very little outside aid to facilitate exchanges. As long as the volume of trade continues restricted, as at present, there will be a large surplus of business capital not wanted for current transactions. This surplus can only be absorbed in speculative channels or temporary investments; ond hence we witness an active demand for all bona fide interest-paying securities, especially for Government bonds, which are just now in great favor among the habitues of the market.

—Upon business in Boston the Evening Traveller, of Saturday, says:

General business is rather inactive for the season. The supply of money continues in excess of the demand for loans anp discounts at the banks and in the open market. Borrowers on pledges of the public securities obtain all the accommodation they require for short periods of time at the rate of five per cent., but the common charge is six on other strong collaterals. The best commercial notes and acceptances are negotiated at six and seven per cent., while some of the inferior grades are passed at eight and nine. There is a steady demand for United States bonds, which have been active all the week at advanced prices. The calls for bank, factory, and railroad stocks are sufficiently large to take up about all the lots that are offered for sale by holders who happen to require the ready means for other use.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 140; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 116¾; 5-20's, 1862, 112½; 5-20's, 1864, 110¼; 5-20's, 1865, 110⅜; 10-40's, 105¾; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 113; 5-20's, January and July, '67, 113¼; June 7-30's, 109⅝; July 7-30's, 109⅝; May Comp., 1865, 119,-30.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 4, 1868.

There is no improvement to note in the tone of the general markets, either as regards demand or prices. Grain has advanced materially in Chicago during the past two days, under the influence of a sharp speculative demand, and if it holds out much longer, it will doubtless make an impression here. In other articles there are no new features worthy of special notice.

APPLE BUTTER—Is steady, with regular sales at 80c to $1 per gallon, according to quality.

POTATOES—Continue very dull; we continue to note small sales of prime Peach Blows, in store at $1,35 to $1,40.

BUTTER—Although the supply in the hands of dealers is by no means large, is dull, nevertheless, and prime to choice fresh Roll cannot be quoted above 18 to 20.

EGGS—The market is hardly as stiff as it was on Wednesday, though some few sales were made to-day at 24c; 23c, however, may be regarded as the ruling price.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged; $2,45 to $2,48 for Red Winter. Oats dull, with sales on wharf at 82 to 83c, and in store, at 84 to 85c. Prime Ear Corn is selling at $1,08 to $1,10, while Shelled is dull and nominal at $1 to $1,05, as to quality. Rye is unchanged at $1,90.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues very dull but unchanged. Small sales at 12 to 13c for Peaches, and 6½ to 7¾c for Apples.

HAY—Is dull but unchanged; baled is selling on wharf at $16 to $21 per ton, as to quality.

LARD OIL—Is steady but unchanged; we continue to quote at $1,50 for Extra No. 1, and $1,25 for No. 2.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and wanted at $2,50 to $2,55. No demand whatever for Clover or Timothy.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged; 14c for Shoulders; 16c to 18c and 18¼c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 19¼ to 19½c for Plain, and 20 to 20¼c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 18¾ to 19c. Mess Pork, $28,50 to $29.

FLOUR—Is dull but unchanged. We continue to quote at $10,50 to $11 for Spring Wheat; $11,75 to $12,25 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $10 to $10,25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 4, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market was considerably firmer to-day, and, compared with yesterday, spot oil has advanced fully half a cent, and even at the advance, the offerings were by no means large. We can report 1,200 bbls, on spot, at 11c; and 300 bbls Smith's Ferry at 10c, bbls returned. The firmness here may be attributed to the advance at Oil City, and, we presume, that a lively competition among buyers is the only cause for the advance there. A telegram from there late this afternoon reported as follows: "Market firm, with an upward tendency. Oil on the creek is scarce and nearly all bought up; holders asking $3,75. At this place holders are asking $4,10 to $4,15, with but few transactions." We heard of sales having been made their earlier in the day at $4.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was also firmer to-day, with more buyers than for some days previous, and of course, fewer sellers. We have but two sales to report, 500 bbls on spot at 28c; and 500 bbls for the last half of June, buyer's option, at 28½c. July is quoted at 29¼ to 29½c; and August at 29¾ to 30c. July, August and September may be quoted strong at 30c, and the last five months at 31c. A New York telegram, late in the afternoon, reported an effort on the part of holders to establish an advance, but buyers were cautious; spot 29¼ to 29½c.

Cincinnati Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, June 4.—Flour a shade firmer, but buyers are not willing to pay the advance; family sold at $10a10,25, but at the close holders asked $10,50. Wheat excited and the prices advanced 10a15c, but buyers were not willing to pay the advance asked; No. 2 winter $2,25a2,35; No. 1 not offered. Corn firmer; No. 1 90a91c, but the demand is light. Oats dull at 78c for No. 1, and but little demand. Rye dull at $2a2,05. Cotton quiet and held at 29c for middling. Tobacco unchanged. Provisions remain dull and the prices nominal. Mess pork can be bought at $27,50. Bulk meats and Bacon neglected and the quotations merely nominal. Lard unsettled; it can be bought at 17½c; no demand. Linseed oil declined to $1,12, and the market is unsettled. Butter dull and prices declining; closing at 20a23 for fresh yellow. Eggs firm at 18. Groceries steady, with fair demand. Hogs dull and prices lower; 7a9 per gross, for the whole range. Beef cattle dull and prices declining; $4,50a8 per gross, for the whole range. Gold at 139½, buying. The money market is easy at 8a10 per cent. The Chamber of Commerce has adopted a rule, which goes into effect July 1st, that flour packed in barrels is not in a merchantable condition unless the barrels are head-lined; and in case flour is sold and not so lined, the buyer can have the barrels lined at the expense of the seller or owner.

St. Louis Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Tobacco is active and very firm, and prices are a shade higher; lugs, $7,75a9,50; dark leaf, $9a16,50; factory leaf, $11a14,50; black wrappers, $12a16,50; medium to good bright leaf, $15a15,50. In Hemp there is nothing doing, and the market is dull. There is no demand for Flour and prices are nominal, with small sales of superfine at $6,50a7, and double extra at $9,75a10,25. Wheat; the market is dull; sales fall at $2,60a2,65, and spring $1,70a1,75. Corn unsettled, buyers and sellers apart, at 85c for mixed; 89a91c for choice white, and 87a88c for choice yellow. Oats heavy and drooping at 75a78c. Barley dull at $2,05 for spring. Rye steady at $1,70a1,75. Provisions flat and nothing doing except in a retail way. Live stock in moderate demand; Beeves at $4a7,50, gross. Hogs at $6,50a9,50. Sheep range from $2a6 per head. Receipts—flour 639 bbls; wheat 11,085; corn 13,140; oats 14,132; rye 335 bus.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FACETIÆ.

—The man who sang "O breathe no more that simple air," went into a smoking car where the air was more mixed.

—A little girl, after noticing for some time the glittering gold filling in her aunt's front teeth, exclaimed: "Aunt Mary, I wish I had copper-toed teeth like yours."

—A Maine paper says that the recent rains have made the grass jump for joy. This is the first instance on record where wet weather has made a pastoral lead year.

—A young lady who was reading a novel was asked by a gentleman how she liked the style. "The style? the style?" was the answer; "oh, sir, I've not come to that yet."

—A cross old bachelor says "the reason why women do not cut themselves in two by tight lacing is because they lace around the heart, and that is so hard they cannot affect it."

—Said a crazy woman of a penurious stingy man, "Do you see that man? You could blow his soul through a humming bird's quill into a mosquito's eye, and the mosquito wouldn't wink."

—The fellow was witty, says the Boston Bee, who, at a dinner "down East," lately gave the following:

"Here's a health to poverty; it sticks by us when all friends forsake us."

—It being rumored that Girardin was to buy his old paper and unite it with the Liberte, under the title of the Presse and Liberte, Charivari remarks that the name won't do, as the press and liberty are incompatible terms in Paris.

—"Did any of you ever see an elephant's skin?" asked the master of an infant school. "I have," shouted a six year old at the foot of the class. "Where?" inquired the teacher, amused by his earnestness. "On the elephant!" was the reply.

—At a collection lately made at a charity fair a young lady offered the plate to a rich man who was noted for stinginess. "I have nothing," was his curt answer. "Then take something, sir," she replied; "you know I am begging for the poor."

—"Mamma, why does papa call the evening paper an organ?" "Because papa wants to go to Congress, my dear, and he can't go without "facing the music." "What is 'facing the music,' mamma?" "Giving stamps to the organ-grinder, my child."

—The only good our late weather has done appears to be that

"The lovely violet smiles more saintly sweet
After the rain."

We are in hopes of soon being able to sing:

"More golden shines, after the summer's heat,
The waving grain."

—A story is told of the late Lord Brougham and his mother. The old lady's servant invariably, when accused of breaking anything, replied, "Sure, ma'am, it was crackit before;" and one day, when little Harry fell down stairs and his mother shouted, "Oh, boy, is your head broke?" "Na, na, mother," said the young genius, "it was crackit before."

—Skeptics have hitherto objected to the credibility of the Scriptural account of the adventures of Jonah with the whale, on the ground that the throat of the mammal was only a few inches wide, and, therefore, too narrow to admit of the passage of a man's body. But Professor Waterhouse Hawkins says that there is no need to assume that Jonah was swallowed by the whale. The head of the marine monster is two-thirds as large as the entire body, and was, therefore, sufficiently commodious to serve Jonah as an abiding place for several days.

—Once a Week says that the following riddle was written by Archbishop Whately, who offered in vain £50 to any one who would guess it:

When from the Ark's capacious round
The world came forth in pairs,
Who was it that first heard the sound
Of boots upon the stairs?

An ingenious correspondent of Once a Week now solves the enigma thus:

To him who cons the matter o'er,
A little thought reveals,
He heard it first who went before,
Two pairs of soles and 'eels.

—Apropos of the new custom of carrying a satchel slung over the shoulder, the New York Commercial Advertiser says that the first man to adopt the custom of carrying a satchel thus is reported to have been an eminent editor, seedy as to garb, and meagre in mein. One evening as he stood, sad and solitary, near the door of a railway car, an amiable agriculturist, with kind intent, plucked from his overflowing bag one or more of the magazines and journals, and forcing a bill into his hand, turned quickly away and left the car, with the remark: "Never mind the change, my good man; you need it more than I."

COL. BADEAU says of Grant: "When he has nothing to say, he says nothing. In private he fills no interstices of conversation by remarks upon the weather, or inquiries after the babies of his visitor. In public he can make no speeches simply of form or compliment; and since the world cared to hear his opinions on affairs, his official position has never allowed him to speak freely. But in public or private, when he has anything to utter, by tongue or pen, he says it with extreme rapidity and clearness, in terse, marrowy, idiomatic English. Even then he clothes his words, in no flowers of rhetoric, but presents them in the plainest, homeliest words. He is the most undramatic of men. Scott was nicknamed, by his enemies, 'Fuss and Feathers.' Grant has less fuss and fewer feathers than any other public man of his day. He believes, with the Chinese proverb, that 'that which is, is.' He accepts things just as he finds them, not troubling himself about the 'eternal verities,' but doing promptly, thoroughly and subordinately the duty which lies right before him, however prosaic and disagreeable."

THE SUMMER CRUISE OF THE NAVAL SCHOOL.—Active preparations are in progress at Annapolis, just now, for the summer cruise of the Naval School. The squadron, which is to be composed of the Savannah, Macedonian and Dale, will sail about the 6th instant, going first to West Point, where it is understood some of the middies will try their skill in pulling oars with the cadets of the Army school. At West Point the graduating class of midshipmen, numbering eighty, will take leave of their schoolmates to enter on the active duties of their profession. After a short stay at West Point the school fleet will sail for the Azore Islands (Fayal) and after a short cruise will return to Annapolis. The school numbers now 350 midshipmen. The new class will enter on the 20th inst.

DURING the month of May, just finished, there have been twenty-three rainy days. The actual duration of rain has been 150 hours and 18 minutes, or 6 days, 6 hours and 18 minutes. The depth of the water that has fallen, as measured by the hydrometer, is 6.980 inches. Last year the depth of rain for the month of May was 5.791 inches, giving a difference in favor of the same month just passed, or against it, as the reader may be disposed to regard the circumstance, of 1.189 inches.

A DISPATCH from Bombay reports that the Russians in Central Asia have defeated the Bokharians in a pitched battle, in which the Khan of Bokhara was killed, and that the victorious Russians subsequently captured the capital, Bokhara, by storm.

Bokhara is the residence of the Khan, and contains his palace, upwards of three hundred mosques and colleges, fourteen caravansaries for the accommodation of travelers, and several bazaars of great extent.

Russia has at last succeeded in securing a firm foothold in Central Asia. She has been pushing her columns into the heart of this country for two years, with a pertinacity which not even the Southern sun or barbarian hordes could overcome. England's dream of owning Mahommedan Asia will now break. All along her possessions to the northward she will find the mountain passes lined with Russian artillery. Bokhara, the scene of the last battle, is the capital city of the district of that name, and is virtually the centre of Mohammedan religion, arts and trade.

VALLANDIGHAM, through the Dayton Ledger, administers a sharp rebuke to those Democratic newspapers which are opening the canvass by assaults upon the capacity and military services of Gen. Grant. He speaks of this as "the weakest and most foolish thing that the Democratic press or Democratic orators can do." The strength of the Democracy in the canvass, he thinks, lies in the fact that the country wants a statesman, rather than a soldier, for President. If they overlooked this consideration, and try to run any soldier against Grant, they will throw away their chances of success. That is true. The fact is they have no chances if they don't run a soldier, and they throw them away if they do. This is rather a difficult dilemma.

VINNIE REAM, the Congressional artist, alleges that Mr. Julian, member from Indiana, threatened her some weeks ago that if she did not use her influence with Ross to vote for conviction, she would be turned out of the capitol. Mr. Julian pronounced the statement, on the floor of the House, to be a wilful falsehood. There is a bitter feeling towards her in the House, and if the rumors about her conduct, which have been circulated for more than a year, are partially true, she should have been turned out long ago.

A MAIL train on the Erie Railway ran into an oil train, at full speed, on Sunday morning, the switch not having been reversed in time. The oil tanks were bursted, and several thousand gallons of oil ran into the Delaware river. Two young men were riding on the platform of the postal car, one of whom was instantly killed by being beheaded and having his legs crushed off, and the other was fatally injured. The postal car was fairly telescoped into the tender of the engine by the force of the concussion.

THE Richmond Dispatch thinks the chance of harmonizing the two wings of the Democratic party is almost hopeless. It says the War Democrats would vote for Gen. Grant rather than for Pendleton; and the Copperheads or Peace Democrats would rather that Grant should be elected than Hancock. The States which have instructed for Mr. Pendleton are Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Oregon, California and Kentucky, and he is understood to be the first choice of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Maryland and Tennessee.

WHEN the Congregational Association of Michigan received the news that Grant and Colfax had been nominated, the regular exercises were suspended, and the standard doxology of the church was sung amid the greatest enthusiasm.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church, Fifth street, next door to GAZETTE office.

HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS.

Seventh Anniversary of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Home for the Friendless—Interesting Proceedings—Secretary and Treasurer's Reports.

The Seventh Anniversary of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Home for the Friendless was celebrated yesterday in the Union Baptist Church, Grant street, near Sixth. The meeting was one of unusual interest, and was attended by a large number of the leading ladies of the city. The children of the Home, some forty sweet little girls, from two to ten years of age, and as many bright, intelligent looking boys of the same age, were neatly dressed and seated in the alcove usually occupied by the minister, and gave additional interest to the occasion.

The meeting was called to order at three o'clock, P. M., and organized by appointing S. F. Scovel of the Wood Street Presbyterian Church, Chairman, and J. B. M'Millan Secretary. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. M'Millan, after which the children of the "Home" sung in a pleasing manner "Beautiful River."

Annie M'Alier, a beautiful and intelligent little girl of twelve years, then delivered an address of thanks to the Managers in a most admirable manner, at the close of which she was almost bewildered by the shower of boquets of beautiful flowers thrown upon the stage.

SECRETARY AND TREASURER'S REPORTS.

Rev. Mr. M'Millan then read the following reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, which were received and adopted:

It gives us pleasure to meet with our friends on this aniversary occasion, and present to them our seventh annual report. We have unmistakeable evidence that this institution has friends, and that there is an increasing interest in its prosperity. Several other charitable institutions have been organized in our midst during the past year, and all looking to a generous public for support, yet this Home for the Friendless has not been forgotten. By the liberality of its contributors, our expenses have been met, and something left in the treasury, with which to commence the new year. Many of these friends have been contributors since the beginning of our operations, and we hope they will not "grow weary in well doing," for we cannot promise to cease our calls upon them. Money is indispensable to feed the hungry and clothe the naked, therefore we cannot afford to lose a single name from our list of annual subscribers, or allow the smallest contribution to be withheld from our treasury. Every such dimunition deprives us from aiding some suffering one, that has no other home, but this "Home of the Friendless." We have been so successful thus far in raising funds for our support, that we do not intend to despond. Our patrons now expect our annual visits, and cheerfully and generously respond to these calls. We trust all will receive a blessing for thus remembering the poor.

"Would'st thou be rich, give unto the poor; thou shalt have thine own with usury; for the secret hand of Providence prospereth the charitable always."

We are more convinced of the necessity and usefulness of this Home, as year after year passes on, and could we give the experience of the Reception Committee, for even a few days, there would be no argument needed to prove this, all would be willing to aid us, and bid us God speed in this work. We are willing to labor, but we desire the sympathy and co-operation of this Christian community. We would like every Christian man and woman, to feel that they have an interest in this "Home for the friendless." It is not sectarian, but ready to receive under its care all that are proper objects of its charity. Since its opening in May, 1861, we have had about five hundred and forty-four children under our care and instruction, and ninety-six adults, temporarily sheltered. Some of the former have been provided with homes, and many restored to parents or friends. The past year we have received 41 children and 14 adults; present number, 86—girls 35, boys, 51.

There has been three deaths during the year, all young and delicate children. One of these had been cruelly left to perish on a door step. We received it, but death soon terminated its sufferings.

For the past two years we have had over forty soldiers' children placed under our care by the State Superintendent, for whom we receive $105 each annually. In these children we feel a special interest—their fathers having given their lives that great national blessings might be continued to us, and should we not feel desirous of benefitting their children? We will give a few cases of interest of another class of children. Very soon after our institution was opened we received a bright eyed little boy about eighteen months old (that any one might love,) but his mother was unable to have a comfortable home for him. He was bound to us, and became a great favorite in the house. Many applications were made for Charlie, but we were never willing to let him go. He was a good, obedient child, and never gave any trouble to those that had the care of him. After some years his mother found a new home in the West, was comfortably settled, but her happiness was not complete without her child. More than a year ago she applied to the reception committee for him, and after a careful investigation as to the kind of home he would have, we allowed her to have him—we hope a life of usefulness is before him. One of the managers was talking with him one day, and asked him what he wished to be when he grew to be a man? Mentioning several vocations and receiving a negative answer to all of them, she said, what then, "Charlie" would you like to be? A minister, was his reply. We could not help hoping that this desire might continue with him where he has gone, and that the truths taught him in childhood "may be as good seed sown in good ground," bringing forth fruit after many days. Christien friends will you not follow this little boy with your prayers, believing that God will hear and answer them?

Another case of interest was that of J. S. ——, a delicate babe, giving evidence of being sadly neglected. The mother was very urgent that we should take him, that she might get a place in a family that was waiting for her and would not take her with a child. He was received more than two years ago, and has grown to be a healthy and pretty child. The mother never came to see him after he was placed in the Home, and we know not whether she is living or dead. A short time since a lady wished to adopt a little boy, (she had daughters, but no sons) she visited the Home and selected Johnny, and in a short time returned with a nicely prepared wardrobe and took him for her son. She has since visited the Home with the child, and there seems to be a strong attachment between them. We believe he has found a good home. We might give many cases of interest, and some where there has been great sorrow causing the children to be placed in the Home. But they would make too long a report. Enough has been given to show what we are trying to do for these children. The teacher of the day school has need of patience in her department, as so many seem not to have had any educational advantages before coming here; children of seven and eight years of age are frequently received into the school that are not much further advanced than their A B Cs. She seems somewhat encouraged, and reports progress in the school. We refer with pleasure to the improved conduct of the children, under the discipline of the present matron, Miss L. J. Blair. The Sabbath services are as usual; the children attend church in the morning with the matron, and have Sabbath School in the afternoon in their own chapel. The average attendance is about seventy, and the teacher is happy to report a growing interest in these exercises. These are varied, that they may not weary of a stereotyped form. Recently, a theme has been given to them, and an appropriate verse selected which they commit to memory. They appear much interested in this exercise. We are very much indebted to Miss Ernest, who has met with the school for some time past and instructed the children in singing. We have also been visited frequently by ministers and laymen which is a special gratification to the children. We would here return our thanks to the many kind friends who have worked for these children, many ladies have kindly sewed for them. The Ladies' Sewing Society of the Central Presbyterian Church of Allegheny kindly made and donated a sacque for each of the girls. Ladies of the Baptist Church of Washington, Pa., also made some garments. Besides these evidences of interest, four little girls held a fair at Manchester and gave the proceeds ($72) to our treasury. We cannot specify by name all who have thus aided us. We have received provision, clothing, coal and various other articles for all of which the doners will please receive our thanks. There is reason for gratification for the excellent health which the children have enjoyed throughout the year, with the exception of some visitations of the measels. Forty-five were prostrated with this desease at the same time, but by the blessing of our Heavenly Father, attending the efforts of our kind physicians, they got through this much more favorably than could have been expected. Our thanks are especially due to Dr. Hezlep, who is constant in his attendance and ready to visit whenever called, either by day or by night. We also cheerfully notice the kindness of the matron and all others in the house for their careful nursing of those little sick ones.

Our children are always kindly remembered on holiday occasions, having all the good things of the season sent to them at each return of Thanksgiving and Christmas. Sixty-six dollars and eighteen cents were received from the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, as part of a collection taken on last Thanksgiving day.

We are much indebted to Mr. Miller, of Allegheny, for a donation of benches and desks, which has added much to the comfort of the school room.

We also acknowledge the receipt of three dollars and twenty cents from the Sabbath School class of Miss Mary Russell, of Greensburg, Pa.

"There is a sacred duty,
Which to the poor we owe,
And he who best fulfills it,
The greatest love will show.

Do good to those around us,
And with a generous hand,
O, give to him that asketh,
'Tis God's divine command."

By order of the Board.
MRS. TREVOR, Secretary.

Susan Trevor, Treasurer, in account with the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Home for the Friendless.

After the adoption of the reports, the following beautiful anniversary song, composed by Miss Annie Wade for the occasion, was sung by the children:

The summer days have come again,
And birds, with merry glee,
Are singing their sweet notes of praise,
So joyous and so free:
And we will sing our songs of joy.
Our merriest, sweetest lay,
To welcome here, with heart and hand,
The friends we love, to-day.

As months and years glide swiftly by,
They bring us blessings rare,
For loving friends our wants supply,
With tenderest, kindest care;
And in our heart's most sacred shrine,
Their memory we will keep,
Like gems that light the hidden mine,
Or pearls that strew the deep.

And when, in after years, we leave
These scenes afar to roam,
The lessons we have here been taught,
Will guide us to that home,
Where, just inside the pearly gate,
Jesus the Lamb will stand,
To welcome to his "Father's House,"
This little, homeless band.

Rev. Wm. M. Young, of the Udion Baptist Church, then addressed the meeting. His remarks were of a practical and highly interesting character, and were delivered in a feeling and eloquent manner.

The children then sang the "Song of Motion," in which they gave evidence of careful training.

Rev. John G. Brown, of the Third U. P. Church, next addressed the children in a highly entertaining and interesting manner.

"Pity the Orphan One" was then sang by the children, after which the Chairman announced that the election of a Board of Managers was the order.

The Board of Managers elect will meet at the "Home" in Allegheny, this (Friday) afternoon, at three o'clock, for organization.

Larceny of a Pocket Book.

Edward Harper, who is employed as paymaster at one of the iron mills in West Pittsburgh, lost a pocket book in that borough yesterday containing $793 30. He thinks he dropped the pocket book from his pocket, and did not miss it for some time afterward. When he discovered his loss he instituted search but was unable to find it. It appears that John Miller and John Lutz, two boys residing in Temperanceville, were observed loafing about the premises about the time the money was lost, which, in connection with other information, led to the belief that they picked up the pocket book, in consequence of which Mr. Harper made information before the Mayor charging them with larceny. A warrant was issued.

The Allegheny County Prison Society will hold its first anniversary on Monday evening, June 8th, at a quarter before eight o'clock, in Rev. Alex. Clark's Church, Fifth street.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Fourth Annual Convention of Sunday School Teachers.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Convention assembled yesterday morning at the usual hour, and the first half hour was spent in devotional exercises. These exercises were directed specially towards the spiritual results of Sabbath School teaching.

The greater portion of the time of the session was occupied in the discussion of two important subjects, viz: "The Wants of Country Schools," and "How to Bring in Neglected Children Everywhere." These subjects were discussed freely and largely. The speeches of delegates were limited to five minutes each, and some twenty speakers addressed the Convention on each subject.

The following resolutions were offered by Rev. T. J. Collier, and adopted:

Resolved, That there be appointed by this Convention a committee of three for every county in the State reported as having no Sunday School Teachers' Association, whose duty it shall be to call together the Superintendents and teachers of all denominations at such time and place as they deem proper, for the purpose of forming organizations in their counties.

Resolved, That said Committee forward a list of the officers of their County Associations to the Secretary of the State Association as soon as they are organized.

Resolved, That the State Secretary be instructed to publish the names of the officers of the State and County Associations in the Sunday School Times when the list is completed.

In accordance with the spirit of the resolutions a committee of five was appointed to nominate members of the county committees mentioned. The committee consisted of Revs. Geo. A. Peltz, Chairman of the Convention, T. J. Collier, S. F. Scovel, W. T. Wylie and Alfred Taylor, State Secretary.

After prayer the Convention adjourned to meet at 2½ P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at half-past two o'clock and was called to order by the Chairman. The exercises were opened by singing the hymn on page 40 of the "Golden Promise," commencing

"A Crown of Glory bright
By Faith I see."

After which Mr. Baker, of the Sunday School Times, led in prayer.

The Chairman stated that the report of the Committee of Arrangements had been received, in which they recommended a number of exercises, the first of which would be a short address by Chaplain Little. The Chaplain being introduced, entertained the Convention with a recital of his army experiences, after which he sung the old familiar hymn

"I'm going Home."

Bringing his famous "music box" into requisition. Continuing his remarks, he elucidated by means of charts and maps his manner of conveying instruction to the children of the Sunday School, occasioning considerable merriment by his felicitous hits and presenting many profitable and interesting suggestions. He closed, singing the song,

"Jesus by the Sea."

On motion, the order of exercises was changed, so as to allow Dr. Bittenger to make a few remarks. Mr. Bittenger commented on the plan of object teaching, as it had been presented by the Chaplain in his address. He said it was the most natural as well as the most impressive manner of instructing the young, and had the sanction of the "Great Teacher" himself, who continually made use of the objects around him and the scenes of every day life to inculcate and enforce the truths which he uttered.

In answer to an inquiry the chairman stated that no other Railroad but the Pennsylvania Central had made half-fare arrangements for the delegates.

The next exercises on the programme, "Blackboard Lessons," was taken up and the subject examined and illustrated with two different methods by Mr. Gardner and Rev. Wylie.

Mr. Parkins, by request, sung in a masterly manner, the beautiful song

"The Banner of Jesus."

The chairman, Rev. Mr. Peltz, made a short address on the subject of "Adult Classes," in which he took the ground that the most essential point in this matter was to have competent, reliable, live teachers. The way he secured these in his school was by looking over the roll of his church membership and selecting from it those whom he knew from personal acquaintance to be competent, and then, by calling attention to their duty in the matter, securing their services, and thus he never had any difficulty, having always as many teachers as were needed.

Mr. Wylie made a partial report and announced that further subscriptions would be received at the evening session.

Rev. Alfred Taylor directed the attention of all who had made inquiry or wished to know who was Treasurer of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association, to a blackboard lesson, which read, "John W. Sexton, care of Jay Cooke & Co., Philadelphia."

The Convention, after uniting in singing the hymn

"Oh, bless the Lord my soul,"

Adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Assembled at 8 o'clock. Rev. F. A. Noble, of the Third Presbyterian Church, presiding. The audience was perhaps the largest which has been gathered at any time during the sitting of the Convention.

The exercises were opened by singing the coronation hymn.

"All hail the power of Jesus' name."

Prayer was offered by Rev. M. Young.

The audience again joined in singing two stanzas of a hymn, after which Mr. Perkins gave the children who occupied several of the front pews a music lesson, using the Sabbath School song

"Little Soldier of the cross."

At the conclusion of the song Rev. Alfred Taylor organized the children into a model class and illustrated his method of teaching Sunday School scholars, which embodied many valuable hints and was listened to very attentively by the teachers present. The children sustained their part of the lesson admirably, and aided considerably in making it, in so many respects, a model one.

Rev. Scovel read a paper on Sunday School music, written by a lady member of the association.

Rev. F. A. Noble made a short address on the same subject.

Rev. Mr. Wylie presented the oft-recurring question of Finances in a very practical black-board exercise, showing the amount required $5,000, and the amount already subscribed $2,075.

After several stirring appeals had been made, contributions came in amounting to $530.50, making the whole amount realized $2,605.50.

Rev. J. H. Cummings briefly discussed the question "Should unconverted persons be employed as teachers?" and "How shall we manage incorrigible boys?"

The Chairman announced that one minute speeches were next in order. Remarks were made by Revs. Taylor, Sample, J. B. Barnet, F. A. Noble, and Messrs. Travelli and Gardner.

Rev. Alex. Clark, of the First Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, was introduced and delivered the farewell address to the delegates. He said that to him had been allotted the most difficult part of the programme. That was to say the word farewell. That word had several meanings, and one of them was "may God be with you." So he would say to all here to-night, "Farewell, may God be with you until we all shall meet in that world of light, to wear our crowns forever and forever."

Mr. Gardner, of Philadelphia, offered a resolution of thanks to the citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny for their kindness and liberality in entertaining the delegates of the Convention.

It having been announced that the Allegheny Valley railroad had offered return tickets to the delegates, Major Frew offered a resolution thanking them, and also the Pennsylvania Central railroad for their courtesy.

Complimentary resolutions were also passed in regard to Rev. Alfred Taylor, Secretary of the State Teachers' Association.

The hymn commencing,

"Blessed be the tie that binds,
Our hearts in Christian love," was then sung, after which Rev. Scovel offered the closing prayer, and the Convention adjourned with benediction by Rev. Alfred Taylor.

Not a Murder.

In the GAZETTE of yesterday we stated that a murder had been committed at Cookstown, Fayette county, which we are pleased to learn was a mistake. The information was derived from a reliable source, our informant having seen a telegram to the District Attorney of that county from a resident of Cookstown, stating in substance what we published. It appears, however, that there was no murder committed, yet the circumstances were of such a nature as to justify the sending of the dispatch. The facts as obtained from a witness to the affray are as follows: Mullin and several others were in a bar-room drinking, when a dispute arose between he and Lamb. Mullin became boisterous and was ejected from the house into the street, and a few moments afterwards Lamb and another of the party, both of whom were very drunk, became noisy inside, and were also shoved out, when Mullin, it appears, knocked them both down with a slung shot or some other heavy instrument. Lamb received a severe cut on the head, and was for a time insensible, which gave rise to the report that he had been killed. He was carried into the house, his wounds dressed by Dr. Robinson, and shortly afterwards returned to consciousness, not having sustained any serious injury. We regret the circumstances which led to the publication of the matter yesterday, which, however, may be attributed to the excitement prevailing in the town at the time the dispatch was forwarded. Lamb is but slightly injured, and was going about the next day.

A First Class Shaving Saloon.

Among the many first class and well conducted hair dressing and shaving saloons of this city none stands higher in the estimation of the public than that of Mr. Fred. Fries, No. 120 Smithfield street. It is fitted out in the best and most elegant style and is thoroughly complete in every department. Cleanliness is made the ruling standard and patrons can depend that no where else in the city can they be more satisfactorily dealt with, the prices being the lowest in the city. A number of first class white barbers, who are thoroughly skilled in their business, are constantly on hand to attend to shaving, hair dressing, dying of whiskers and hair, and ladies and gentlemen's hair will be dressed, shampoed, curled or cut at their residences on the slightest notice. Mr. Fries is the only person in the city who uses the patent rotary hair brush, which is a positive luxury, softening the hair, cleaning the scalp, removing all dandruff and foreign substances from the hair and producing a pleasant, electrical sensation. We earnestly bespeak for this saloon and its courteous, gentlemanly proprietor a full share of public patronage.

Abandonment.

Anna Bowlan, at present confined in the county jail, where she was sent by the Mayor on a charge of disorderly conduct, made information before Alderman McMasters, yesterday, charging her husband, Joshua Bowlan, with desertion and abandonment. Marbleized Mantles.

The marbleized mantles and table tops manufactured at W. W. Wallace's steam marble cutting establishment, No. 335 Liberty street, are coming into very general use, as their superior qualities are just becoming rightly understood and appreciated. They are much handsomer, more durable and decidedly cheaper than the genuine marble which they are made to represent. At the rooms of the establishment allotted for the display of these matchless beauties will be found magnificent specimens in close imitation of the most precious marbles of the old and new world. Mr. Wallace is the only manufacturer west of the mountains of this line of goods, and he can sell thirty per cent cheaper than the agents of inferior eastern manufactories. Everybody is invited to call and examine the rich specimens on exhibition at Mr. Wallace's rooms.

Personal.—Captain John Travis, the world-renowned pistol marksman, has arrived in town for a stay of a few weeks. He designs giving a free exhibition in pistol target practice if a room suitable for his purpose can be procured. He also gives instructions in the principles of shooting and directions for the selection of weapons. Captain Travis has been celebrated throughout the southwest for many years for his wonderful exploits in pistol shooting, and before the war the proficiency of many of the Southern chivalry in the use of the pistol was due to his instruction.

He is at present stopping at the St. Charles.
